

ROGUE FARM CORPS

PO Box 533 - Ashland, OR 97520 - www.roguefarmcorps.org - 541-951-5105

Resources for Intergenerational Farm Transfer

- Bar Referral Services in each state connect you to attorneys in your area
- Ties to the Land is curriculum for family farm and forest succession.
- Small Business Development Centers – in each state, offer business counseling and can help with succession planning.
- Northwest Farm Credit Services offers farm succession counseling to customers for a fee
- Legacy-byDesign – Kevin Spafford is a private farm succession consultant based in California, but working around the country.

Oregon

- Austin Family Business Program offers succession classes and resources
- Oregon FarmLink connects beginning farmers and ranchers to land and partnerships

Washington

- Washington FarmLink connects beginning farmers and ranchers to land and partnership

California

- California FarmLink also connects beginning farmers and ranchers to land and partnerships, and offers many additional programs to help with farm or ranch viability

Resources for Working Lands Easements

Oregon

- Coalition of Oregon Land Trusts represents 19 land trusts serving Oregon
- Oregon Agricultural Heritage Program proposed state program that would fund working lands easements and help with farm succession

Washington

- Washington Association of Land Trusts represents 28 land trusts serving Washington
- Office of Farmland Preservation succession resources and coordinates a match grant program for working lands easements

California

- California Council of Land Trusts represents 150 land trusts in California
- California Farmland Conservancy Program provides match grants

Oregon resources are listed at <http://www.roguefarmcorps.org/resources/>
Contact Nellie McAdams for help: nellie@roguefarmcorps.org, 971.409.6806